I'm usually a person who helps people when I can. In that case I can help. Because with some couples I think there is a problem in one of the two and they need another material. All the best.

As a child I was not very crazy. I loved being around people, outside. I liked to have fun with nice company. My parents have been separated for a long time. A job overseas, (Spain, Greece). As a student I was more or less decent, not too crazy, more like good. My hobby is sports since I was little; weight lifting, cycling, hiking. (The movement). Christian by religion. My personality is calm. In some subjects I am a perfectionist. I am focused on my goals and stick to them strictly. I am currently flexible with work. I work as a delivery boy and masseur. In the future I want to develop myself with massages because they are interesting to me. I studied at an electrical engineering school. but I have no interest in developing in this field. I like to read mafia, psychology and thrillers. I listen to almost any kind of music. According to the mood and the company. I am open to new adventures. I like to travel and do sports. My advice is to be a man and keep your word!!!
