

Hi,

I was born in Mexico City, my dad is Spanish and my mum is Mexican (her dad, my grandpa, is Spanish too), all my Spanish heritage comes from the north west part of Spain, [REDACTED] I have 1 older sister who has 2 kids, 1 girl and 1 boy. I studied international business in Mexico and then I moved to London in 2011 as I was looking for an adventure, I ended up settling here.

I was raised Catholic in a very conservative school and family, I had a very happy childhood.

I am lucky to be a very healthy person, all my family is too, currently 3 of my grandparents are still alive, all from my mums side, my greatgrandma who is my grandpa's mum is 101 years old!

My passions in life are travelling, spending time with my friends, exercising (I love the gym, cycling, swimming), i started going to the gym when I was around 16 years old and ever since then I haven't stopped going.

ever since I was a kid I've had this love and obsession for animals, I love nature and animals so much I could have had a zoo at home if I could.

I have travelled to approx. 40 countries, every since I started travelling in my early 20's, I became more and more passionate about it, I love exploring new sceneries, cultures, meeting new people, trying new food.

Hi,

[REDACTED], my current age is 35 years old. I decided to donate sperms as it's been several years since I have been wanting to help someone.

I hope you are a happy and healthy person and you enjoy an amazing life.

I would always be willing to meet you.
