

Pen-sketch.

I have been travelling and working in South Asia.. And worked for one of the leading IT firm in the world. This

IT firm advised by Exchange

After that I moved [redacted] Then

I moved to another IT data center & networking ~~comp~~ infrastructure ~~company~~ spread across 60 countries.

While working I started my own company. also I performed well in the company where I worked and highly recommended due to decisions I made throughout the world.

With the experience and education background with multiple degree program I have become a successful entrepreneur

I have companies which is successful due to decisions I made and I help others to do the same. I'm always helping others and I have 'can do' attitude always.

When we are small my parents always guided me to a correct path. They are always practical and very down to earth people. I always like to spend time with my parents. I love to travel with my parents and spend time with them.

My brother and I had a dog. It's a German Shepherd. When we were schooling we enjoyed time with him. I always wanted to have a dog but we had a time is not permitting with the work load.

I always live with lot of people and hang out with friends. I like more social events than sitting at home.

Most of the times I eat very healthy food. ~~I don't like~~ I like Sri Lankan food as well.

Travelling is hobby. I have been travelling while I was studying and we covered lot of places in the world. Travelling is amazing and I will keep doing it.

I always think work is my pleasure, I enjoy working and achieving targets.

My friends are giving me
friendly and very helpful. I trust people more than they do sometimes.

All the best

Goodwill Message

wish you all the best and have a great life.
It was really great to help someone who needed. Don't go back on your failures, learn from them and start again. Never dishonestly or unfairly on business, there are enough ways to do business in right way. I have success in many countries around the world. Be honest and do your best. All the best for bright colourful future.
