

Pen Sketch

Raised in a good loving family in which my only worry was getting my school notes up to date and learning as much as I could during my time in there.

Always fan of being active, playing all kinds of sports specially football and tennis as I found on physical activity a release of stress for my every day routine.

I decided to change my world completely [REDACTED] to open my mind and discover real life by myself. Not being afraid of language barriers or long working hours per week as every experience in your life gives you the chance to keep growing and is up to you what you want to learn from each of them.

Today I am a very reasonable man, finding explanation for every situation in my life and where my accounting career has allowed me to make a living taking advantage of my fixed reasonable mindset.

In my day to day I try to stay fit playing tennis and working out (not smoker also), eat healthy, enjoy the ones around me and I never forget where I come from so the success will never be an obstacle in my life.

Goodwill message

The key in your life is believing in yourself, there is no limits in your mind to make you reach everything you want in life and it only depends on you to make each of your goals happen.

Stay fit, don't smoke, travel the world, pursuit a career that you really enjoy and never forget the ones who loves you.
